UDB-EDU Russian Social Science & Humanities Journals Online

You probably know names of Russia's classic authors: Dostoevsky, Tolstoy, Chekhov, Pushkin. But do you know Russia's modern day authors, like Pelevin, Akunin, Marinina, Tolstaya, who are just as innovative and controversial as their literary forefathers?

Now your patrons can read works by or about contemporary authors of Russia online through East View's Universal Database of Social Sciences & Humanities (UDB-EDU). UDB-EDU consists of more than 80 resources on topics covering:

- Higher education
- Prose, poetry and literary criticism from "tolstye zhurnaly", or Russia's most respected literary journals
- Historical analysis
- Popular science
- Writings/research material on Chekhov, Dostoevsky, and works in translation
- Socioeconomic problems, including ethnic relations
- International relations
- Issues on psychology, philosophy, linguistics
- And so much more... many of which are available only from East View.
