

UDB-GOV Laws and Acts from Russia – Online

The Universal Database of Governmental Publications (UDB-GOV) includes a vast selection of sources offering everything needed to monitor Russian lawmaking while it is happening.

While mainly monitoring the events in the legislative branch of the Russian Federation, UDB-GOV includes information from both its houses, the Duma and Federation Council:

- ◆ Stenographic records of the hearings;
- ◆ Vote results, official resolutions and draft legislation;
- ◆ Official reports of parliamentary investigations and audits;
- ◆ Auxiliary information such as the schedule and agenda of legislative work.

UDB-GOV includes Biulleten' Schetnoi palaty published by the State Audit Chamber and Vestnik Tsentribirkoma, or The Herald of the Central Electoral Committee, which is responsible for all elections in Russia.

UDB-GOV includes comments on current Russian legislation published by the authoritative legal journals Zakon and Gosudarstvo i pravo.

Concerning the executive branch of the Russian state, UDB-GOV includes texts of laws, presidential decrees, and government resolutions. The magazine Diplomaticheskii vestnik provides official documents on the activities of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia.

The judicial branch is represented in UDB-GOV with the inclusion of Constitutional Court decisions.
